

REDS NEARING BLAZING BERLIN

Meandering Along the Main Stem

By WASH FAYETTE

Citizens of Jeffersonville and surrounding area, whose radios were "on the blink" in interference that made reception almost impossible, are grateful to the Dayton Power and Light Co. for prompt action in ferreting out the "leak" in electricity that was causing the trouble, and repairing it Saturday night, so the funeral services for President Roosevelt as well as the war news, could be heard Sunday.

It seems that W. W. Williams notified the power company, and a trouble shooter was put on the job at once. He found the current "arching" in a transformer near the Perry Mowery home, five miles from Jeffersonville, made repairs, and instantly all radios were working perfectly.

I just talked with Elmer Zimmerman, who with his brother and sister, operate a 16-acre fruit orchard on the Prairie road, and he informed me the fruit crop is still in fairly good condition.

He said the peaches and plums had suffered some, but believes sufficient fruit has been left by the freeze of a week before last to make a fair crop.

Cherries, apples and other fruits apparently have not been damaged extensively, he said, and nearly a full crop of apples and pears may be expected if no further damage results.

This will be good news generally to residents of this part of Ohio, who depend largely upon the fruit from a few commercial orchards in Fayette and Ross counties to furnish them with fruit, outside of what is purchased in the local markets.

That reminds me that years ago, practically every farm in Fayette County had an orchard, and that home grown fruit played a much more important part in the family diet than at the present time. Then the fruit was canned, apples and peaches dried, and large supplies of apples stored in cellars or buried in the ground and covered over to prevent freezing until the fruit was wanted.

WAR TO BE SHIFTED AHEAD OF SCHEDULE

Fight in Europe Is Nearing Wind-up, Is Inference

WASHINGTON, April 18.—(AP)—The first steps to transfer this country's full military might against Japan are under way. Its final accomplishment is expected four months earlier than had been planned.

High officials who disclosed this with the understanding they would not be quoted by name emphasized that the full time of deployment will not set in until the Allies in Europe are satisfied that organized military resistance there is at an end.

However, some items of equipment originally labeled for delivery in Europe have been shipped instead to the Pacific.

Personnel shifts, confined for the present to comparatively small numbers of specialist troops, have been instituted.

CLAIM ON RHINELAND PASSED BY FRANCE

Collective Exploitation of Ruhr Also Acceptable

PARIS, April 18.—(AP)—Georges Bidault, French foreign minister, will tell the world security conference at San Francisco that France has no intention of annexing the Rhineland, it was learned today at the French foreign office.

France does wish to occupy the west bank of the Rhine as assurance against future aggression by Germany.

Bidault left by plane last night for the United States. He will present France's formula for peace to the conference—assurance of collective security, maintenance of bilateral pacts and the participation by France in social and economic conferences.

France also will accept collective exploitation of the Ruhr by the Allies, according to information here.

NEW PRESIDENT MAKES IT PLAIN HE RUNS SHOW

Truman Displays Firmness But Willing To Listen To Words of Advice

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON, April 18.—(AP)—President Truman intends to run his own show. He will take advice from friends. But he will make the decisions.

That was the interpretation Washington put today on several actions in which the new president displayed a firmness not surprising to those who knew him.

He overruled the High Command on a matter that had more domestic than military significance in nominating Lt. General George Smith Patton, Jr., and Courtney Hicks Hodges to four-star generals.

He picked John W. Snyder, St. Louis banker and a friend of 25 years standing, as federal loan administrator. Washington had understood President Roosevelt was planning to shift Budget Director Harold D. Smith to this post.

He told his news conference yesterday that Foreign Commissar Molotov of Russia will stop in Washington to pay his respects to the president of the United States, as he should.

He announced that he wants the Bretton Woods monetary agreements and the reciprocal trade program enacted by Congress. Pointing to his own record of congressional support of such proposals, he did not urge them as Roosevelt objectives.

He said he would welcome a talk with Gen. Charles De Gaulle, provisional president of France, as well as other of the Big Five leaders. De Gaulle generally is credited in this country with having snubbed an invitation by Mr. Roosevelt to meet him in Algiers.

Mr. Truman yesterday also directed seizure of a Lake Charles, La., high-octane refinery plant left idle by a controversy over rents charged in a nearby housing project.

He closed his busy day with a brief address at 10 P. M. to members of the nation's armed forces throughout the world. He recalled that in France in the last war, "I saw good officers and men fall and be replaced."

Mr. Roosevelt has fallen, he said, but "he never faltered—nor will we."

President Truman encountered his first pitched battle in Congress today.

House Republicans launched a full dress attack on administration efforts to gain sweeping new authority for tariff reductions.

A noisy ruckus occurred when the Ways and Means committee opened public hearings on the issue, with Republicans objecting to the reading of a statement written by State Secretary Edward R. Stettinius.

Chairman Doughton (D., N. C.) told the Republicans pressing duties in connection with the impending San Francisco United Nations Conference prevented Stettinius' personal appearance. The secretary's statement was read by Assistant Secretary William L. Clayton.

Stettinius, in his paper, took the signal from Mr. Truman to proceed in behalf of the late President Roosevelt's proposals for renewal and broadening of the Reciprocal Trade Act.

Mr. Truman's action in promotion of Patton and Hodges was credited as a move toward the sort of cooperation he has asked from and promised to give Congress.

Less than a month ago, Gen. George C. Marshall, Army chief of staff, told the Senate military affairs committee it was not possible to elevate Patton and Hodges to four-star rank because each commanded only one army, not an army group.

His former colleagues on the committee complained to Mr. Truman that two mighty good fighting men were being overlooked in the High Command's recommendation for promotion of several others to the rank of full general.

Mr. Truman got a chance to sample another version today in a scheduled call (9:30 A. M., EWT) at the White House by the Senate Republican steering committee, headed by Senator Taft of Ohio.

Ernie Pyle Killed By Jap Bullet While With Yanks Fighting On Ie

By LEIF ERICKSON

GUAM, April 18.—(AP)—Ernie Pyle, the GI's columnist, was killed today by Japanese machine-gun ambush on Ie Jima, a 10-square mile island just west of Okinawa.

Fleet Adm. Chester W. Nimitz's headquarters said Pyle was killed by a surprise machinegun attack at 10:15 A. M. on the southern side of the island, while observing the advance of 10th Army troops who had invaded the island Monday.

The commanding general of the Ie Jima invasion troops officially reported Pyle's death as follows: "I regret to report that War Correspondent Ernie Pyle who made such great contribution to the morale of our foot soldiers was killed in battle on Ie Jima today."

HIGHEST TRIBUTES

WASHINGTON, April 18.—(AP)—Ernie Pyle is dead.

The famous little war correspondent, beloved alike of Doughboys and five-star generals, was killed Tuesday on Ie Jima, a small island lying off Motobu peninsula of Okinawa.

His death was announced by Secretary of the Navy Forrestal and President Truman issued a statement of condolence.

"The nation is quickly saddened again by the death of Ernie Pyle," Mr. Truman said.

"No man in this war has so well told the story of the American fighting men wanted it told."

He deserves the gratitude of all his countrymen."

Forrestal said Pyle was killed by Japanese machine gun fire while standing beside a regimental commanding officer.

The secretary's statement said: "With deep regret the Navy announces the death on Ie Shima (Jima) of Ernie Pyle whose reporting of this war endeared him to the men of the armed forces throughout the world and to their families at home.

"He was killed instantly by Japanese machine gun fire while standing beside the regimental commanding officer of Headquarters Troop 77th Division U. S. (Please Turn To Page Two)

CHARLIE CHAPLIN IS FATHER OF JOAN'S BABY, JURY FINDS

LOS ANGELES, April 18.—(AP)—A legal conference was called in Superior court today over how much support Charlie Chaplin shall pay for 18-month-old Carol Ann Berry, declared by a jury to be his baby.

The verdict yesterday, applauded by many spectators, was a reversal for the act in his court battles resulting from a romantic involvement with the infant's mother, Joan Berry.

A year ago a federal court jury pronounced him innocent of a Mann Act indictment. It charged he had transported Miss Berry, 24, his former drama protegee, to New York City and back for immoral purposes.

TOUGH FIGHTING SLOWS YANKS IN OKINAWA DRIVE

American Planes Blast 29 Jap Ships—7,000 Civilians Rescued on Luzon

By LEONARD MILLIMAN

(By The Associated Press)

American infantrymen drove into the outskirts of Baguio, Japanese Philippines headquarters from which Igorote tribesmen rescued 7,000 civilians, today while Superfortresses ripped up six airdromes in southern Japan for the second consecutive day.

No Japanese interceptors took off yesterday from the six airfields on Kyushu islands, bases for many of the 2,280 Japanese planes which Adm. Chester W. Nimitz announced have been destroyed in the last month during Okinawa invasion operations.

The planes were knocked out of enemy air fleets attacking the Americans on and off Okinawa, and also in U. S. and British carrier raids on the Ryukyus and the Japanese main islands.

This toll does not include planes shot down by Superfortresses or by escorting Mustangs from Iwo Jima. In one recent Tokyo raid, B-29 gunners alone shot down or damaged 136 aircraft and escorting fighters added 37.

Japanese planes hit the Okinawa area heavily again Monday, striking in 10 waves. At least 10 of the attackers were demolished in suicidal attempts. Sixty-two were shot down in combat and 38 fell to anti-aircraft fire.

Infantrymen on southern Okinawa still were locked in a bitter artillery duel while Marines edged closer to the northern beaches through pockets of Japanese resistance.

Ten-square-mile Ie Island off the west central coast of Okinawa was reported two-thirds in American control.

The Yanks were meeting only moderate resistance as they closed in on the remaining encircled garrison.

Wednesday communiques reported American planes on all Pacific fronts destroyed or damaged 29 more Japanese ships and hundreds of small craft and killed hundreds of Nipponese soldiers.

Radio Tokyo reported Yanks invaded Menna Islet, an airbase off the west coast of Okinawa. Four miles to the north other infantrymen conquered two thirds of Ie Island, with the bomber field, and cornered remnants of the 1,000-man enemy garrison. Okinawa battle lines were substantially unchanged.

Japanese asserted a U. S. submarine, four transports, five carriers and four other warships were sunk Monday and Tuesday.

A hundred Nipponese planes were shot down Monday when they made ten heavy attacks on the Okinawa fleet. The emperor's air force is so badly depleted that even old-style training planes and 16-year-old pilots were thrown into the attack.

Superfort headquarters disclosed today on the third anniversary of Jimmy Doolittle's Tokyo raid that about half of the industrial section of the Japanese capital has been destroyed.

Rocket-firing Navy search planes attacked Tomari Cape on northeastern Paramushiro in the Kuriles today pouring fire into Japanese installations.

BLACK MARKET HOSE COSTING MILLIONS

Selling Stockings Above Ceilings Prevalent

NEW YORK, April 18.—(AP)—The National Association of Popular Price Shoe Retailers said today "black market" operations in hosiery were adding millions of dollars to the stocking bill of American women.

"Loose and discriminatory hosiery regulations" and "inexcusable laxity in enforcement" permit much of the diminishing supplies of hosiery to fall into the hands of retailers "who have no compunction about buying or selling hosiery above ceilings," the shoe group said.

The association, which represents chain stores, said it would protest to the Office of Price Administration in Washington tomorrow.

Head Jew Baiter Flees Beleaguered Nuernberg

By A. I. GOLDBERG.

NUERNBERG, Germany, April 17.—(Delayed)—Julius Streicher, the Nazis' master Jew-baiter, who directed the defenses of this one-time site of Nazi Congress spectacles, has fled the city.

Nuernberg was falling tonight to the U. S. 45th Infantry division, which caught the Nazis in a surprise maneuver, and started moving through the woods at the eastern edge of Hitler's great sports arena, built to accommodate the annual party Congress.

But German officials inside the city ignored leaflets and telephone calls demanding their surrender. Streicher left three night ago and was succeeded by Kreisleiter Naumeister.

Nuernberg was subjected to aerial pounding and a heavy artillery barrage last night. Just before dusk tonight heavy guns from a 10-mile perimeter around the city directed intense fire on pin-pointed targets.

Ahead of us in the city were anywhere from 4,000 to 15,000 Nazis, behind us Nazi prisoners poured up the road to prison cages.

The enemy had a dense belt of artillery in the town, but our artillery and tanks were reducing the German guns.

Lt. Vernon Whitehead of Richmond, Tex., commander of F Company which took nearby Fischbach last night, waved to his men in the woods and said, "let's go."

MOTHERS' DAY MAY 13

WASHINGTON, April 18.—(AP)—President Truman today proclaimed Sunday, May 13, as Mother's Day in acknowledgment of the nation's "gratitude, love and devotion" to the nation's mothers.

LIBERATED YANKS TO GET 60 DAYS

COLUMBUS, April 18.—(AP)—A group of 104 Ohio soldiers, en route to their homes after being liberated from European prison camps, were informed by the War Department today their furloughs would be for 60 days, instead of the previously announced 21 days.

Fifth Service Command headquarters said the last-minute change was announced after the soldiers left Camp Atterbury (Ind.) where they were taken from a debarkation port, yesterday.

After the furlough the men will report at Miami Beach for reassignment to duty in the United States.

FROST IS FORECAST FOR CENTRAL OHIO

COLUMBUS, April 18.—(AP)—Ohio fruit growers and victory gardeners dusted off their smudge pots and crossed their fingers today as the temperature headed down toward frost territory.

The U. S. Weather Bureau at Columbus predicted low temperatures of 34 degrees "or possibly freezing" for the middle Ohio area, with heavy frost in prospect.

The frost will be less damaging, however, than the April 6 siege which killed large numbers of peach and other fruit crops, the bureau added.

ically, and Allied Armies pressed relentlessly from the West, a Moscow dispatch said the Russians could see burning Berlin. The Germans said the Red Army had exploded a new offensive on a 17-mile front south of Stettin in a drive to outflank Berlin and join with the Allies on the north German plain.

A Nazi broadcast said 2,500,000 Soviet troops were in the drive on Berlin, supported by 2,500 field guns and 1,600 mortars which in 24 hours fired a half million rounds.

Targets in Czechoslovakia, already deeply invaded by the Russians, were blasted by more than 750 heavy American bombers which also struck communications in southern Germany. The 600 fighter escorts hit airfields on the diminishing Luftwaffe. Canadian bombers struck Helgoland in the North Sea, which guards the north German ports.

The U. S. Ninth Army completed the capture of Magdeburg, big city on the Elbe River, sinking a firm anchor for its Berlin-pointed bridgehead.

British Second Army soldiers battled through the Bremen suburbs and advanced to within 22 miles of Hamburg in a wide breakthrough before the lower Elbe River. The U. S. Ninth Army expanded its bridgehead east of that river, 45 to 52 miles from Berlin, and battled in the streets of Magdeburg.

Supreme Headquarters said 2-055,575 Nazis were captured since D-Day in the West. The April total has topped 875,000.

As Gen. Eisenhower gathered power for the final drive to meet the Russians, the Red army by German account was springing from Neisse River bridgeheads in two main columns, driving across the last 75 miles of central Germany toward the east-bound U. S. Third army, which last was reported four miles from the Czechoslovak frontier and hammer at industrial Chemnitz, where the German commander rejected an ultimatum.

British and Russian bombers delivered a coordinated blow against Berlin last night and other Allied aircraft kept up a steady pounding of Nazi escape railways into the south. Meanwhile, a recapitulation showed that Allied pilots destroyed 4,150 enemy planes thus far in April. Widespread attacks were carried out by the British yesterday on German shipping.

The Germans said powerful Russian attacks carried within 18 and 20 miles of Berlin. In the Neisse River sector, the Germans said, a spearhead was aimed through Niesky, 48 miles from Dresden. An American-Russian juncture in that area would cut Berlin defenders off from any retreat into the Bavarian Mountain redoubt. Meanwhile, the German radio said, the drive in the lower Oder area was near Stettin was assuming great proportions.

In Italy Polish troops with the British Eighth army advanced up the Po Valley to within 10 miles of Bologna and U. S. Fifth army troops ground slowly toward that major base from the south through an enemy entrenched in caves, tunnels and pillboxes along the mountain highway.

The German News Agency DNB said the Nazis would fight to the end in nine major pockets, and implied an imminent Russia-American juncture. He listed them

Yanks Play Ball in No-Man's-Land

German Boys Argue Merits of Tanks, But Clincher Is Fact That Americans Winning

BY HAL BOYLE

WITH THE TENTH ARMORED DIVISION, NEAR LEIPZIG.—(AP)

—One distinguished German warrior is permitting the Americans to roll across his homeland without even waking up to acknowledge their presence.

He is Friedrich Barbarossa, the famous red-bearded crusader of bygone centuries who legend says is sleeping in a vast cave in Kyffhausen Gab Mountain north-west of Bad Frankenhausen.

"This legend says he sits at a big stone table around which his red beard has been growing all these years," said Cpl. Kirk Dalton, former reporter and desk editor of the Kansas City Star.

"He is supposed to emerge from the cave and fight the anti-Christ."

Remarking that Ninth Armored Division tanks had driven well past the old king's underground penthouse, Dalton added: "Unless he has something in that red beard that'll whip a column of Sherman tanks, he had better get up."

COUNTY HOSPITAL PLANS STUDIED BY COMMITTEE

NOT ONE CHANGE SUGGESTED AT JOINT MEETING

Institution Would Provide Care for 55 Patients and Complete Facilities

Preliminary plans, in blue print detail, for the proposed 55-bed Fayette County Hospital were spread out before a joint meeting of the Hospital Committee and County Planning Commission Tuesday night by H. Eldridge Hannaford, head of Samuel Hannaford's Sons, Cincinnati architect firm, commissioned by the county commissioners to prepare them.

Before taking up the plans for detailed explanation, Hannaford made it plain that they were only the preliminary sketches and were being submitted to for criticism and revision. After nearly three hours of discussion, there was neither.

The plans call for a plain three story brick building with foundation dimensions approximately 208 feet in length and 43 feet in width with an extension to the rear from the center entrance 60 feet long and 43 feet wide.

The cost of the building and fixed equipment was estimated at $328,000 and the cost of the movable equipment at $35,000, bringing estimated total cost to approximately $363,000.

In the basement under the entire building, the plans provided for the kitchen, storage and shops on one side, the heating plant under the one story extension back from the middle and the morgue, autopsy room, emergency operating room and refrigerator for bodies on the other side.

To the left of the main entrance on the first floor plan were the general office, office for the superintendent, directors' room and lounge. In the extension were placed an isolation ward with two rooms and necessary facilities and to the right on the main corridor were the diagnostic room, two operating rooms, the X-ray rooms, nurses' work rooms, pharmacy, etc.

The second floor was given over almost entirely to rooms for surgical and medical patients. The plans provided for ten private rooms and ten semi-private rooms with two beds and a four-bed ward. Some of the rooms would have bathrooms and all lavatories. Visual control with all rooms was provided at the nurse's desk near the center.

The third floor was given over to maternity cases with four private rooms, three semi-private and a four-bed ward. The delivery room and nursery, with an isolation nursery also are on the third floor.

Louis Blair, who was commissioned to make the survey to determine whether a hospital was needed here and, if so, to what extent, came from Columbus for the meeting. He endorsed the plans down to the last detail.

After the plans had been studied for nearly an hour, Carroll Halliday, chairman of the hospital committee, explained, in the presence of many of the ward and township chairmen at the meeting, that the committee was expected to be enlarged to 500 or 600 members who will go from house to house to acquaint the people with the project. Since the people will be called on to finance the hospital through a bond issue, it was emphasized that all should be given the complete picture.

Turning the discussion to the cost, Forest F. Tipton suggested that the campaign be based on a 1-mill levy for 20 years for the bond issue. On a voice vote, there were no negatives.

Suggestions, first by Tipton and later by Robert Meriwether, that Federal aid possibilities be investigated were sidetracked with little consideration. Walter Solars remarked that he thought "Fayette Countians are able to handle this without any help."

In answer to a query by George Pensyl, Blair said he would provide the committee with budget estimates for upkeep. In general, he added, a staff of one employee for each patient was the rule.

Blair is the director of University Hospital in Columbus, an expert on hospital management and a professor of hospital administration at Ohio State University.

Ford Ervin, president of the Fayette County Farm Bureau, said a county hospital had been discussed at length at community meetings of members and that the sentiment of those who subscribe to hospital plans was that "they would much prefer to go to a hospital here if they can get the doctors." Several members of the committee who aided Blair in his survey said other cities which had hospitals but no resident surgeon had assured them they had no difficulty in getting surgeons from Columbus "within one or two hours."

Just before the meeting came to a close, Hannaford said that since no changes had been suggested, his firm would proceed with making up the more complete plans—plans suitable for submitting the proposal for a bond issue.

LARGE NUMBER ENJOY CHAPEL CHOIR CONCERT

Entire Program Proves One Of Rare Beauty and Is Highly Praised

A large audience thoroughly enjoyed one of the greatest musical treats given here in recent years, Tuesday night, when the Chapel Choir, of Capital University, under the skilled direction of Prof. Ellis Emmanuel Snyder, appeared in concert, under auspices of the Washington Organ Club, which was assisted by the Cecilian Music Club.

It was the noted choir's second appearance in Washington C. H., and the appreciative audience was untroubled in its praise of the outstanding work of the choir and Director Snyder, who is head of the music department of Capital University.

Opening the program the choir sang the National Anthem, carrying out the various parts as never heard here before and pre-facing the beautiful program that followed.

The masterly directing of Prof. Snyder was apparent at all times and there was not an instant that he did not have his choir of 54 voices under perfect control.

The different parts were combined in perfect harmony, and there was a smoothness and shading that could only come through individual ability, expert training and many rehearsals. There was strength and volume and a finesse that was most pleasing to the large number of music lovers present.

The solo parts, taken by Misses Geraldine Groszick, Anna Mae Ginkery, Ann Helwick and Helen Schilling, were in keeping with the exceptionally fine work of the choir generally and added materially to the pleasure of the program.

The choir sang a number of encores, including the very effective and much enjoyed "Carol of the Bells," "Jesus Christ For Us Comes To Drive Away The Darkness," "God Bless Our Land," and the concert was brought to an impressive close by singing the "Benediction" with the four parts carried out in perfect harmony, and the curtain was drawn slowly at the close.

Miss Betty Gardner, member of the choir, and a talented organist, played two lovely organ numbers, Fantasia, by Bach and three movements of the Suite for Organ, by Rodgers.

The Organ Club officers were roundly commended for bringing the choir to the city, and its appearance here added much incentive to vocalists generally, as well as bringing unusual pleasure to everyone who heard it.

Following is the regular program carried out:

Hodie Christus Natus Est, Palestrina; Father Most Holy, Cruger; Jesus Christ, Hymn from New Guinea;

A Prayer to Jesus, Oldroyd. O

Darkest Woe, Monson; Praise ye the Name of the Lord, Nikolsky; If I Speak with the Tongues of Men, Leonard; The Shepherd, Lutkin; Glory and Honor and Laud, Wood;

Go Not My Soul, Christiansen; Russian Easter Carol, arr. by Gaul; Swing Low Sweet Chariot, arr. by Hall; O God, Our Help in Ages Past, Mueller.

Army. At the time of his death, he was with the foot soldiers, the men for whom he had the greatest admiration.

"Mr. Pyle will live in the hearts of all servicemen who revered him as a comrade and spokesman. More than anyone else he helped America to understand the heroism and sacrifices of her fighting men. For that achievement, the nation owes him its unending gratitude."

In his tribute to the 44-year-old reporter for Scripps-Howard newspapers, who covered the war in Europe before going to the Pacific early this year, President Truman said:

"More than any other man he became the spokesman of the ordinary American in arms doing so many extraordinary things. It was his genius that the mass and power of our military and naval forces never obscured the men who made them."

"He wrote about a people in arms as people still, but a people moving in a determination which did not need pretensions as a part of power."

"Nobody knows how many individuals in our forces and at home he helped with his writings. But all Americans understand now how wisely, how warmly, how heartily, how honestly he served his country and his profession. He deserves the gratitude of all his countrymen."

Ernie Pyle's full name was Ernest Taylor Pyle, but he was addicted to simplicity, both in his writings and in his dealings with the Doughboys whose stories he told.

Pyle saw more war than many soldiers, and he hated it. Twice in Europe he narrowly escaped the death that overtook him on Okinawa where he was writing his daily column.

About the dangers of being a war correspondent, Pyle once wrote a friend:

"I didn't have my clothes off for nearly a month, never slept in a bed for more than a month." Sometimes it was so cold, he said, "my mind would hardly work and my fingers would actually get so stiff I couldn't hit the keys."

Like other war reporters, Pyle spent much of his time living in the field with the troops. During the fighting in Tunisia he went four and five weeks without a bath, sleeping on the ground and on farmhouse floors, under jeeps and in foxholes.

Pyle was born August 3, 1900, on a farm near Dana, Ind. His father, William C. Pyle, still lives there. His widow, the former Geraldine ("Jerry") Siebolds of Stillwater, Minn., lives in Albuquerque, N. M., where they built a home a few years ago.

After attending Indiana University, he started newspaper work on the Laporte, Ind., Herald. He worked on the Washington, D. C., Daily News from 1923 to 1926, when he quit to make a leisurely motor tour of the country with Mrs. Pyle.

Winding up in New York, he worked a year or two with the Evening World and the Evening Post before returning to the Washington Daily News.

In August, 1935, he left the managing editor's desk to start writing his daily column.

He encountered the war in 1940, when he went to London in time to be in on the great fire bombing at the end of December.

He was the author of "Ernie Pyle in England," "Here Is Your War" and "Brave Men."

LIMITED PRODUCTION ON FARMS ADVOCATED

Maintaining that agriculture and industry were interdependent, the Marion Township Farm Bureau Council I met with Mr. and Mrs. Omar Rapp Tuesday night.

Prosperity can best be maintained by limiting farm production in normal times, it also was decided at the meeting when opinions that farmers should get more money for their products so they can buy factory products and that the family type farm should be maintained, were voiced.

A potluck supper preceded the meeting. The next session will be May 15 with Mr. and Mrs. James McLean.

CONSUMER DECLARATION NOW REQUIRED TO GET COAL

THE WAR TODAY

—By DEWITT MACKENZIE—

(By The Associated Press)
The slowing down of General Eisenhower's offensive need cause no anxiety or disappointment, since it's a normal development anticipated by observers from the outset of his great drive from the Rhine.

The Western Allies are much further ahead with their job than they had any right to expect when they began their push, and are in grand shape for the kill. The slackening off is due to several things—the rapid extension of Allied communications which has hampered movement of supplies, a stiffening of German resistance as we near Berlin and the heart of the Reich, and possibly to the requirements of coordinating the operations of the Western Allies with those of the Russians.

It's one of the wonders of the war that Eisenhower has been able to move his supplies as fast as has been done—a feat of logistics which has been drawing the plaudits of military experts. The point is that an army—much less a vast front comprising of several armies—can't travel faster than its supplies, and one of the high command's greatest problems has been movement of food and material over great distances to keep pace with the racing troops.

We mustn't forget that these supplies—which originate in the United States and Britain—pass through continental ports and thence many hundreds of miles to the fighting zones. The difficulties have multiplied once the Rhine has been reached, owing to disruption of the railways and the fact that Cologne, the most important communications center, is out of commission.

It was, of course, vital in the early days of the offensive that the momentum be maintained, because a slackening might give the enemy a chance to reorganize shattered forces. By and large the Allied high command has kept up the scorching pace of the offensive until the Western Allies are drawing in on Berlin to join the Russians in the siege of the capital, and are close to a junction with the Red battle-line along the Oder River. Thus General Ike has out-run the early dangers.

But, you ask, won't the present slowing down give the Hitlerites a chance to reorganize? Likely it will, but they're so badly cut to pieces on the Western Front that their reorganization won't profit them nearly as much as it would have earlier in the offensive.

I think we must assume that the coming battle of Berlin will be a tough one. The tightening up of Nazi resistance as we approach the capital indicates that, and the signs all along have been that Hitler intends to make a grandiose gesture in his defense of this pride of Prussia which not so long ago had jammed within its limits some 5,500,000 people and may still contain a huge civilian population.

We also must be prepared for fierce fighting as the Russians lunge forward along the Oder. It's possible, however, that we may get a striking development along the Russian Front in a withdrawal of many German forces from the center towards the north and the south. That would be deliberately weakening the German line and facilitating a junction of the Russians and the Western Allies, but it would be calculated to enable the Nazis to consolidate their remaining fighting forces in two great zones—one in the north along the coast, and the other in the Bavarian Alps with Hitler.

So it can be seen that there's prospect of considerable fighting yet, which emphasizes the wisdom of Eisenhower in stating that there will be no announcement of V-E Day "until all important enemy pockets on the Western Front have been wiped out."

BLANKS PUT OUT AMONG DEALERS FOR CUSTOMERS

Consumers To Have To Get Along on 80 Per Cent of Total Used This Winter

To get coal next winter, it will be necessary to file a "Consumer Declaration" with the dealer who is expected to supply it before May 15.

"Consumer Declaration" blanks are now in the hands of dealers in Fayette County. They have just been distributed by the county's Rationing Board—but there the function of the Rationing Board ended, for, as the chairman made plain, "the Rationing Board has nothing to do with coal rationing." He went on to explain, however, that the board handled the distribution of the blanks "merely as a convenience" for the dealers, consumers and the Solid Fuels Administration for War (a government agency) which supervises this system of coal distribution. There are no blanks at the Rationing Board's office.

The "Consumer Blanks" themselves are self-explanatory and simple. Consumers fill them out, and dealers expressed the belief "they will have no trouble if they will read them carefully first."

Because of the unusual wartime demands for coal by industry, dealers explained, indications are that there will not be enough coal to meet the needs of factories supplying materials for war and normal domestic requirements; so, since war production cannot be curtailed until after victory is won, homes and non-essential users have been called on to curtail their use of coal by 20 percent.

As the dealers understand it, they will get only 80 percent of the total amount of coal they received this year and they will have to spread that out among their customers by giving them only 80 percent of what they burned during the past winter.

To assure an even distribution, this new form of rationing has been worked out which leaves the details largely to the dealers.

In the "Consumer Declaration," consumers set down the number of tons and kind of coal that will be needed next winter—80 percent of the amount that would be burned ordinarily. Dealers are required by law to check the correctness of the declaration.

Each blank also must state the number of rooms to be heated and carry the name of the dealer asked to supply the coal.

A false statement in the declaration makes the consumer liable to a fine of not more than $1,000 or ten years' imprisonment or both.

No dealer is permitted to deliver coal to a consumer who has not filed a "Consumer Declaration" with him.

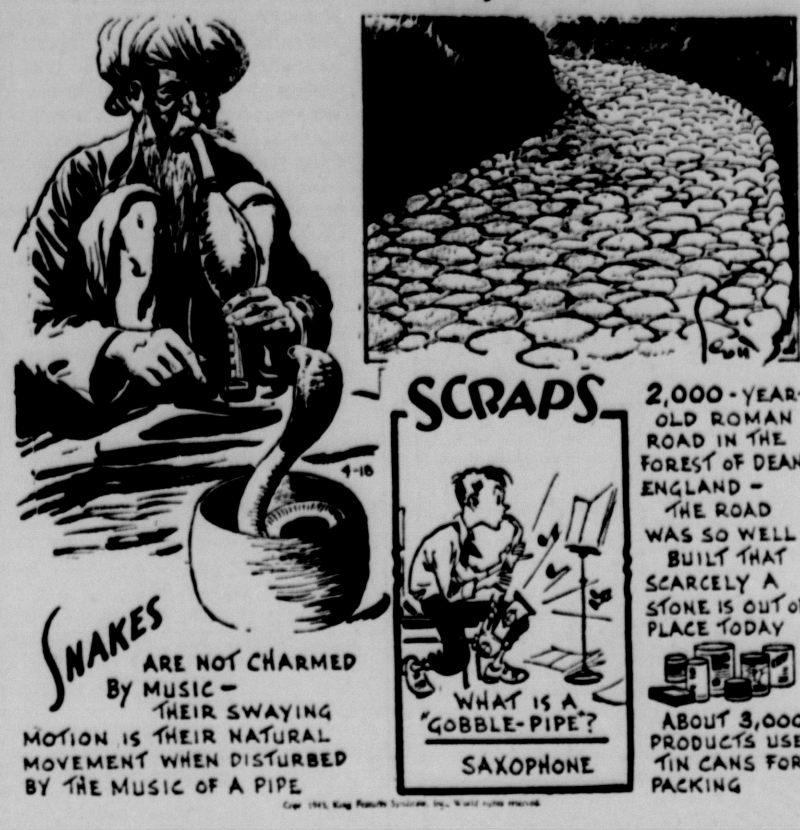

The law forbids a consumer filing a declaration with more than one dealer unless coal is ordinarily obtained from more than one—in that case the conditions must be plainly stated in the declaration and show that not more than 80 percent of the normal requirements are sought.

The "Consumer Declaration" does not constitute an order, but an order may accompany it. If the declaration is filed before May 15 and a bonafide order placed, the consumer is entitled to delivery of at least 30 percent of the total order before October 1 if satisfactory arrangements can be made for storage and settlement with the dealer.

Most dealers agree that deliveries would be facilitated if consumers would arrange to take them when the coal is available throughout the summer. They pointed out that some would not have storage space for early delivery of 30 percent of their requirements.

The dealers are not without their troubles. When the plan was first devised, it was expected to become effective April 1. But the blanks were not available, and the time was extended to May 15. Word has spread during the last couple of days that the "Consumer Blanks" would be ready soon and dealers have been deluged with calls. One said they averaged "about 100 a day."

Dealers now are giving declaration blanks to their old customers when they call for them. But, it is up to the consumer to fill out the blanks and return them to the dealer—that is something the dealer cannot do for the customer.

Dealers are facing their problems, one of the biggest of which are the consumers who have moved into their service area. The old customers are no problem. The Solid Fuels Administration for War already has cautioned the dealers that they will not get coal to meet requirements of consumers not regularly served by them last year. Just what to do about consumers they did not supply last year (mostly those who have come here recently), when they ask for coal for next winter admittedly is as yet an unsolved problem for most of the dealers. One dealer pointed out that many new families had moved into Washington C. H. and that the SFAW regulations make no provision for them. Most dealers make it plain that while they want all the business they can get and do not want any home cold, they also feel an obligation to take care of their old customers first—in fact, that is what the SFAW compels them to do.

n't better come out without his white flag."

Up ahead the fighting was still hot, but Company C of the 60th Armored Infantry Battalion had reached its objective and its men were bored—even with enemy artillery occasionally chucking in a shell.

They sat in the sun and read in "Stars and Stripes," service newspaper, about spring baseball training camps back home. Someone sent this message back to battalion headquarters:

"Send us up some baseball equipment."

"Come again," said the unbelieving battalion adjutant.

But he followed through, and the rest of the afternoon Company B batted grounders and caught pop flies within grandstand sound of snipers' rifles and falling mortar shells.

Two German boys of 12 started arguing as an American tank column paused in their village. Standing by one tank, Pfc.

"Oh, I don't think so," said the second. "Our German tank is much bigger and stronger—much better in every way."

"Well, if it's that good," said the first boy, "why is that American tank here then?"

$2,500 monthly for support of Carol Ann. Chaplin has paid her more than $18,000 for attorney fees and support and still pays $75 weekly under a pre-trial agreement.

His attorneys, Charles E. Millikan, said he had not decided whether to appeal the verdict. The jury of 11 women and one man deliberated two hours and 55 minutes before returning their 11 to 1 verdict.

A previous trial of the paternity suit ended last January with the jury deadlocked, 7 to 5, in favor of Chaplin.

The lone holdout for the comedian yesterday was Mrs. Mary N. James, 65-year-old housewife.

"I'm not pinning the baby on Chaplin or anyone else," she told reporters. "I came into court thinking I was going to uphold American womanhood, but while sitting here I changed my mind. After what I heard here, I'd hate to have it on my conscience that I perhaps named an innocent man."

At home Miss Berry said: "Naturally I am very thrilled and happy."

Millikan declared: "The verdict doesn't make Chaplin the father of the child."

BPW Club Discussion Groups Comprise Program For Tuesday Night Meet

Working Conditions Forty Years Ago and Today for Women Interest 54 Club Members Who Met at Country Club for Dinner

The progress made by women who entered the business world, formerly dominated by the male population, some forty years ago was enlarged upon by Mrs. J. E. Smith when she appeared first on a program along this theme at the Tuesday night session of the Business and Professional Women's Club at the April dinner-meeting held at the Country Club.

Introduced by Dr. Ruth Teeters, program chairman, Mrs. Smith regaled her audience with the list of do's and don'ts handed a "female stenographer" when she first entered a business office.

The study for the evening was taken from the Independent Women, the national magazine of the organization. Among the women who were leaders in the nation at that time and who were the inspiration to women less talented were Clara Barton, who became the first president of the Red Cross, Elizabeth Blackwell, only woman doctor at the time and Susan B. Anthony who was leading the temperance crusade.

Mrs. Smith contrasted the small number of women she listed as being leaders forty years ago, with the fact that today thousands of women hold influential and lesser posts throughout the country, and that eight women will have a part in the discussion of Dumbarton Oaks proposals at the San Francisco Conference, beginning April 25.

She mentioned that fact that she and Mrs. Stella Hendryx were the only women stenographers in this city at the time she started working forty years ago on May 7. Her closing remarks emphasized the fact that a business woman must "know her ability and not depend on personality."

Miss Frances White was next presented by Dr. Teeters, and her topic was the "Aims and Objectives" of the Business and Professional Women's Club which will celebrate its 25th birthday this year. The aims are stated in the club motto: "A better business woman for a better business world." Among the subjects touched on by Miss White were should married women work, the proper dress for the office, fair pay for equal work, and House Bill 289 which seeks to give these rights to the business women of the nation.

Mrs. Loreah O'Brian spoke next on "Members of B. P. W. and Their Work." Many statistics were given to prove her point when Mrs. O'Brian spoke, and she mentioned some 400 odd occupations business women are engaged in today. She quoted figures which stated that one-half of the members of the national organization are married, one-fourth are single and one-fourth are widows.

Mrs. Lowell Miller discussed the topic "Where Club Money Goes." She explained the division of the money into club, state and national funds and dues, and told how much is used to equip and staff the office which publishes the club magazine.

"Hospitalization Through the Club" was discussed by Miss Clara Davis when she explained the Blue Cross plan. Members can avail themselves of the opportunity for this non-profit service through the club.

To climax the interesting discussion of club affairs, Dr. Teeters introduced the incoming club president, Miss Ruth Sexton who told of "Plans for the Future." She stated a critical period is ahead of the nation and that business women can and do develop into good leaders; that it is the job of each woman to improve her mental and physical prowess to meet the demands to be made on them in the future.

Earlier in the evening a sumptuous two-course dinner was enjoyed by 54 members at four large serving tables which were centered with bowls of colorful tulips. Following the dinner hour, Miss Betty Cook lead the group in singing with Mrs. Betty Steen at the piano. Miss Cook requested the singing of "Home on the Range," in tribute to the late President.

Committee in charge of social arrangements for the dinner-meeting was Miss Ruth Cardiff, Mrs. Homer Scott, Miss Imogene Finley and Miss Rosemary Denison.

Various reports were then requested read by Mrs. Vernice Deafner, president, during which it was announced the club has Miss Palm was born in Sweden but came to this country at an early age and later became a graduate nurse at Christ Hospital in Cincinnati. Miss Palm spent 22 years as a medical missionary in a hospital in Sinyu, China, where she is head nurse.

Miss Palm told of the difficulties of her recent trip to the United States, stating that the trip which ordinarily required only a few weeks, took six months due to war conditions.

Nursing in China, she said, was formerly considered a menial labor that was done only by coolies, but the situation is slowly being remedied with the training of the Chinese girls.

War conditions have caused a severe shortage of food and clothing and an extremely high cost of living. Miss Palm also disclosed that drugs in the hospitals had not been obtainable for many years and that they were also forced to make their own substitutes, such as grinding egg shells for calcium and many other such substitutes.

She also said that it was the deepest wish of Chiang-Kai-Shek that China may someday become Christian. It was disclosed that this could only be obtained through missionaries.

For her talk, Miss Palm wore a real silk Chinese dress of blue and white with brocade at the top. The arrangements for the affair was under the supervision of Miss Norma Dodd with the assistance of Mrs. Pansy Morgan, Mrs. Helen Dunton, Miss Cecil Turton, Miss Lula Binegar and Miss Francis Merriweather.

Bess Wallace Truman, First Lady Of Land, Said To Be Home Type and 'Folksy' by Those Who Know Her

THIS IS THE MOST RECENT portrait of Mrs. Harry S. Truman. A former village school teacher, she was the President's childhood sweetheart and married him twenty-five years ago in Missouri. (International)

By ADELAIDE KERR
Indications are that in Mrs. Harry Truman, America will have a decidedly different type of First Lady than it has had in the last 12 years.

While President Truman indicated his intention of following President Roosevelt's policies those who know his wife predict that her White House career will be a definite contrast to Mrs. Roosevelt's, which was crammed with writing, speaking and traveling friends.

"Mrs. Truman prefers to stay in the background. She takes a great interest in Mr. Truman's career and helps him with it. But after that her first interests are her daughter and her home."

America generally knows very little of Mrs. Truman. During the last Presidential campaign, the country looked with interest on Republican candidates' wives as possible first ladies, but most people forgot to look at Mrs. Truman—until after her husband's selection as Democratic Vice-Presidential candidate. Then they saw a gray-haired woman, shorter and plumper than Mrs. Roosevelt, who sat untrifled and laughed at the swarms of reporters and cameramen who besieged her box.

"No speechmaking," she said of the coming campaign. "I never have. Probably I shall help with Mr. Truman's speeches—that is in the editing of them—as we have always done in Washington. Two heads are better than one, when it comes to re-arranging words and phrases."

During the President's career as Democratic Senator from Missouri, Mrs. Truman served as his clerk at a salary of $4,500 a year. Mr. Truman said on the eve of the last campaign that he never made a report or delivered a speech without her editing it.

People from Missouri call the new First Lady a "folksy person"—cordial, unaffected and possessed of an air of dignity. Most of her comments center around her husband. She dresses generally in simple tailored clothes. In cool weather she often wears grey or dark suits with simple white blouses and brimmed hats of the sailor type. In summer she likes printed or dotted crepes with white accents and white shoes.

The Trumans were schoolmates and childhood sweethearts in Independence, Missouri, where the grandfather of Mrs. Truman (born Bess Wallace) served as town's first Mayor. After World War I, in which Mr. Truman served overseas, they were married.

They have one daughter, Margaret, now 21, who attended George Washington University, majored in music and hopes to be an opera singer. On home evenings Margaret and her father occasionally play piano duets or she sings to his accompaniment.

In their simple five-room Washington apartment, Mrs. Truman daily rose early, got her husband's breakfast and started Margaret to school.

"Beefsteak and fried potatoes are what my husband likes," she once said.

Between household tasks Mrs. Truman has given several hours daily to work at a United Service Organization canteen.

"I do just what the chairman of the day asks me to do—just like everybody else," she said in describing her work.

Reading is her favorite recreation. Her favorite authors are Charles Dickens and Sir Walter Scott. Recently she has been studying Spanish.

Reds Beat Pirates in Thriller As Major Baseball Season Opens

By JACK HAND
(By the Associated Press)

Nine straight opening day victories for the St. Louis Browns went into the record books today as a companion piece to their 1944 feat of copping an American League pennant.

Luke Sewell's gang took up where they left off last year by knocking off Detroit.

Hal Newhouse was the victim of the Browns' 7-1 uprising as Sig Jakucki, tomato-faced right-hander, allowed only six hits.

One-armed Pete Gray broke into the majors for the Browns with a single and was robbed of a sure double on a circus catch by Roger Cramer.

Standout individual performance of the opener was turned in by the New York Yankees' Russ Derry, starting his first full season in the big show. Derry, a Missouri farmer, belted two homers in his club's 8-4 decision over the Red Sox.

George Metkovich, Sox first baseman, set a new league standard when he committed three errors in that same seventh frame. The first two were on the same play when he missed a base-runner going to first and threw wildly to the plate letting two men score. The third set the stage for Derry's grand slam clout.

Starter Alton Donald was credited with the win over Rex Cecil.

Mel Ott set six new records while his New York Giants ruined Boston, 11-6. Starting his 20th season with the same club, Ott broke a mark every time he scored or batted in a run, drew a walk, slammed a long hit or picked up an extra base on a long smash.

Bill Voiselle faded under a last round epidemic of homers but picked up win No. 1 over Al Javery. Phil Weintraub, Ernie Lombardi, Joe Mack and Chuck Lombari hit for all four bases.

Bill Nicholson drove in one run and scored another in the Chicago Cubs' 3-2 margin over the St. Louis Cardinals behind Paul Derringer's effective hurling. The Cubs got only four safe blows off Ted Wilks and Bud Byerly, the loser.

Veteran Curt Davis and rookie Mike Sandlock teamed up for Brooklyn's 8-2 decision over the Phillies and Ken Raffensberger. Davis allowed eight hits and came through with a homer. Sandlock slammed three hits.

Joe Kuhel and rookie George Binks each connected four times in Washington's 14-8 smothering of Philadelphia's Buck Newsom. The Senators stole five bases to make it an easy job for Dutch Leonard.

Reds Win Thriller

The largest crowd of the day saw the longest ball game of yesterday's major league 1945 debut when the Cincinnati Reds went 11 innings to defeat the Pittsburgh Pirates, 7-6, before 30,069 fans.

The spectators got full measure as the game featured a home run with the bases loaded; another knocked over the fence but out of the record books because it was hit seconds after "time" was called; a sophomore player becoming a hero for the home team, and a game-winning single.

Dain Clay, Red centerfielder, made baseball's supreme offensive gesture in the fifth inning when, with the score 2 to 1 favoring Pittsburgh, he sent the ball over the left field fence driving three teammates across the plate ahead of him.

Mr. Clay also hit a single in the 11th with the bases full to win the contest.

Pittsburgh suffered chagrin in their half of the fifth when Frankie Zak, shortstop, bunted safely, sending Al Lopez to second. Zak's shoelace became untied and he called "time" to redo the unknotted accessory. Starting pitcher Bucky Walters had begun his motion and threw plateward to have Jim Russell belt it over the right field fence. The umpires ruled "no play" and Russell resumed his place at bat to single and score Lopez.

Walters was removed from the game in the tenth and Hod Lisenbee, 44-year-old right-hander, the Pirates' powerless to win the ball game.

Fritz Ostermuller started for Pittsburgh, was knocked out in the fifth and replaced by Xavier Escigno who gave way to losing pitcher Rip Sewell in the seventh.

Today's game sees Nick Strincevitch pitch for the Pirates against lefty Arnold Carter.

One-armed Wonder Makes Major League Debut. Pete Gray, the one-armed outfielder of the St. Louis Browns, makes his debut in the majors as the Browns opened against Detroit in St. Louis and won, 7 to 1. (International Soundphoto.)

Spying in Sports

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

NEW YORK, April 18.—(AP)—Look for an announcement from Washington within a week or two telling college football teams what they're expected to do to help the transportation situation.

Asa Bushnell, Eastern Intercollegiate Association head, and Dr. Wilbur Smith, N.C.A.A. president are talking things over with the O.D.T. The O.D.T. heads don't want them to drop football because they figure folks sitting in a stadium won't be sitting in trains or driving cars.

Following that line of reasoning, it appears the "neutral field" ban will be dropped because it's easier to move the game to the fans than the fans to the game.

Jeffersonville Basketeers Given Letters at Banquet

Jeffersonville's basketball teams were in the spotlight for a night when the annual basketball banquet was served in the Jeffersonville High School gymnasium Tuesday at 7:30 P.M.

Rev. E. R. Rector, pastor of the Jeffersonville Methodist Church, was toastmaster for the banquet. He introduced Kenny Cook of the Varsity team; Merrill Evans of the reserves and Karl Brown of the junior high team who spoke briefly.

BLUE LIONS SHUT OUT AT LONDON

Three errors Tuesday afternoon cost the WBS Blue Lions a baseball game when they lost to London 2-0 on the London diamond. The game, originally scheduled to be played here, was moved to London because Wilson Field was too wet.

Carroll Steele, WBS pitcher, allowed the Londoners only three hits but Hackett, London catcher, capitalized on two of them to turn in runs in the second and fourth innings.

Hackett scored on two errors and a hit in the second inning and on a hit, an error and a put-out in the fourth frame.

The Blue Lions managed to connect with four hits during the game—three of them credited to Dan O'Brien, centerfielder.

A game at Greenfield Thursday is the next on schedule for the WHS nine.

Men Divide Alley Honor in Tourney

As the second half of the first round in the men's bowling tournament was rolled Tuesday night at the Main Street Alleys, honors were divided evenly between the Men's Industrial League and the API Men's League.

The Inspection quintet downed the Pennington Bakers in a whirlwind match that left the Inspectors less than 50 pins ahead of the Bakers. The Engineers, also of the API squad, defeated the Washington Produce team by a handsome margin. All tournament games are scored by total pins rather than by game wins.

Slagle-Kirk, of the Men's Industrial League, hurricaned into the Tappets of API to take the match by nearly 200 pins. Mt. Sterling of the Industrial League, gave the Melvin Stone Crushers the same treatment—but by more than 300 pins.

NEW PRESIDENT RUNS OWN SHOW BUT TAKES ADVICE FROM FRIENDS

The Republicans came bearing officially a resolution they passed uttering their aid.

Unofficially some of the GOP leaders planned to tell Mr. Truman that (1) He wants their help in getting legislation passed, (2) They want to be consulted before proposals are submitted and have a chance to suggest changes.

A delegation of Republican senators told President Truman today they were willing to consult with him "at any time where prospects of differences over legislation appear."

"We explained," added Senator Taft (R-Ohio), "that there may be occasions where differences can be ironed out directly by consultation and agreement."

Taft, chairman of the Senate Republican steering committee, told reporters that he and his colleagues called at the White House in the role of the "loyal opposition."

"We were appointed by the conference to give our regards and good wishes to the president," Taft said, "and to express to him the conference's willingness to have him call us at any time to consult with him on any subject."

The conference lasted about 30 minutes.

Senator Hawkes (R-N.J.), later called to pay his respects to the president.

As he left, Hawkes told reporters: "I told him that as a businessman I am behind him and that I would urge businessmen I know to stand back of him in every way possible."

Hawkes is a former president of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States.

GOVERNOR SAYS COLLETT MUST DIE FRIDAY NIGHT

CLEMENCY FOR MURDERER HAS BEEN REFUSED

'Facts Do Not Warrant Any Executive Clemency,' Says Lausche

Governor Frank J. Lausche Wednesday forenoon denied clemency to James W. Collett for the triple murder of the Elmer McCoy family, and ordered him put to death in the electric chair at the Ohio Penitentiary Friday night.

Collett's plea for clemency was made after the Ohio Supreme Court had refused to certify the record, and fixed March 21 as the date of execution.

In refusing clemency, Governor Lausche said: "In my opinion, the facts surrounding the murder of Elmer McCoy, Mrs. Forrest McCoy and their daughter, Miss Mildred McCoy, do not warrant the granting of executive clemency."

Collett was convicted of the triple murder after a lengthy trial in Common Pleas Court here, March 10, 1944, and after overruling a motion for a new trial, Judge H. M. Rankin sentenced him to death March 29, the date of execution being fixed for July 26, 1944.

Collett has been in death row since March 31, 1944.

His case was carried to the Court of Appeals, and a hearing held Oct. 10, 1944. Upholding the lower court in a two to one decision, the Appeals Court sentenced Collett to die Feb. 6, 1945.

When the case was carried to the Supreme Court and that body refused to admit it, the Supreme Court fixed March 21 as the date of execution.

Later Governor Lausche granted 30 days stay while a hearing was had before the Board of Pardons and Paroles, so that April 20 was the fourth and final date fixed for his execution.

Sheriff Orland Hays, his wife, who is a deputy sheriff, and Police Chief Valden Long expect to attend the execution Friday night.

No automobiles or bicycles will be permitted in the enclosure and no roller skaters are to use the sidewalks, Stambaugh reminded. The Teen Age Club supervisors, William B. Clift and Miss Martha Berend, will be there to see that everything goes off smoothly.

All skaters are to assume responsibility for any accidents, Stambaugh said. The Teen Age Club will be closed during the skating hours but will open from 9 to 10 P. M.

ANNUAL SCHOOL ENUMERATION TO BEGIN MONDAY

Vocational Commercial Co-op Class Will Do Work Again This Year

Work of taking the annual school census or enumeration will be started Monday, by the vocational commercial cooperative class of the Washington C. H. High School, under direction of the teacher, Miss Helen E. King.

This important task of counting all children between 5 and 18 years of age, as of May 1, 1945, will require between two and three weeks. Ten girls will carry on the work each day until the job is completed.

Last year a total of 1842 boys and girls were enumerated. They are divided as follows:

Boys between 5 and 15 years, 806; girls between 5 and 15 years, 782; boys 16 and 17 years of age, 119, and girls 16 to 17, 135.

As the work of taking the school census is carried out, the enumerators will also obtain a list of the crippled children from one to 21 years. Last year about 30 crippled children and others not able to attend school, were enumerated.

Miss King stated that any child 5 years old who will be 6 by December 31, 1945, will be allowed to start to school in September.

It is pointed out that the rule about young children attending school, that has been in effect heretofore, will be adhered to this year.

Taking the school census means practically a house to house visit throughout the city.

NO HOGS IN CITY AFTER MAY SIXTH

All hogs inside the corporation of Washington C. H. are to be taken out of town by May 6, City Manager Walter L. Stambaugh warned today.

Stambaugh recalled the county board of health meeting where it was resolved that no more permits for keeping hogs inside the city would be issued and that the hogs could not be kept unless there was a permit.

The action here was taken at the request of the State Department of Health, Stambaugh said.
